Who we are?

- Erasmus Life Roma Association: A non-profit Association
- Connecting international and Erasmus students in Rome, promoting cultural exchange and opportunities for students through a variety of activities and events
- Benefits: Cultural excursions, social events, networking, language skills, and discovering Rome
- Enhancing the university experience for international and Erasmus students through cultural exchange and community-building
- Made up of students currently studying at different universities in Rome, both international and Italian students, to obtain their undergraduate or graduate degree.

EXPERIENCE CULTURE,

Our history

- Erasmus Life Roma Association (ELR) was founded in 2018
- The idea for the association came from our president's experience working with another association, Erasmus in Campus, which was connected to the University of Rome "Tor Vergata"
- After three years of experience, our president saw a lack of support and resources for international and Erasmus students and decided to create a new association
- On November 3, 2021, members of the association officially came together to establish ELR as a non-profit association"
- ELR was officially registered on November 12, 2021 and is located at Via del Caravita 8/a, Rome.
- The association is politically and religiously neutral and was established in accordance with regulations for non-profit recreational and cultural associations.

Our Goals

- The Erasmus Life Roma Association is dedicated to providing a truly enriching and memorable experience for international students studying in Rome.
- Our goal is to create a welcoming and engaging community that brings together students from all over the world, fostering cultural exchange and understanding.
- We strive to enhance the overall student experience by offering a variety of programs and activities, including:
 - Social events
 - Cultural excursions
 - Academic support
- Additionally, our association serves as a voice for international students, working to improve their involvement in city and university life.

With our dynamic and dedicated team, we strive to make the experience of studying abroad in Rome as fulfilling and enjoyable as possible. Join us and be part of a vibrant community, where you will make lasting connections and memories.

Building Strong Relationships Our Partners

Erasmus Life Roma Association is proud to have established strong partnerships with a variety of local businesses, organizations and universities. Our partners are committed to providing our members with exclusive benefits and discounts, making their experience in Rome even more enjoyable. From bars and restaurants to travel agencies, legal services and universities, we strive to offer a wide range of options to our members to enhance their time in Rome. Our collaborations with these partners help to enrich the experience of our members, while allowing them to fully immerse themselves in the local culture.

In addition to our local partners, we are also proud to have a collaboration with the University European of Rome (UER). The university supports our association in officially organizing activities for international and Erasmus students and takes part in the Welcome Week for both first and second semester.

Financial Overview and Support for Erasmus Life Roma Association

The Erasmus Life Roma Association is proud to have a strong financial foundation, thanks to the support of our partners and members. Our partnerships with local businesses and organizations provide us with funding for various collaborations and activities. In addition, we generate income through the sale of membership cards, which cost 10 EUR each. This funding allows us to promote the association and organize better events. It also helps us to buy necessary equipment and provide reimbursement for staff members. Overall, our finances enable us to provide valuable experiences and activities for our members and make a positive impact on the community.

Membership Card

Membership Card Being a member of Erasmus Life Roma Association comes with many benefits, including exclusive discounts at local businesses and access to our organized events and activities. To become a member, students must purchase a membership card for a one-time fee of 10 euros. The funds from these membership cards go towards promoting and improving the association, as well as providing reimbursement for our staff members and purchasing equipment for sports activities. By purchasing a membership card, students also become part of our association's community and can connect with other international students in Rome.
